PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION
ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Sir:

This petition is filed in response to the Notice of Abandonment dated October 6, 2005 and received by Applicants' Attorney on October 11, 2005.

The entire delay in filing the required reply, from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CF 1.137(b), was unintentional. Specifically, the above referenced application ('849 Application) was filed on November 27, 2001 and published on May 29, 2003. Applicants' Attorney prior to publication contacted Mr. Knepper, the Examiner of record, regarding the status of examination. On July 15, 2004 a Non-Final Office

Action was mailed to the Applicants' Attorney of record setting a three-month shortened statutory period for response. Concurrently, the same Applicants had a continuation application (Serial No. 09/351,542) pending before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. This application had received an action setting a one-month statutory period for response. Applicants' Attorney inadvertently placed the '849 Application in the same category for response as the concurrently pending continuation application, thus, incorrectly indicating a five-month statutory extension of time was available for the '849 Application from the docketed date of October 15, 2004.

Applicants' Attorney maintains customer number and, therefore, has access to all pending applications on PAIR for which he is attorney of record. The '849 Application carries such a customer number and has for over two years. Because of the above inadvertent docketing error, the '849 Application unintentionally became abandoned January 18, 2005 without Applicants Attorney's knowledge. Specifically, the Examiner did not notify Applicants' Attorney of the status and nothing was carried on PAIR indicating the application was abandoned.

Two months later, on March 11, 2005, unaware of the abandonment of '849 Application, Applicants' Attorney filed an Amendment under 37 CFR 1.111 in full response to the Office Action dated July 15, 2004 and requested a five-month extension of time, including the required fee of $1,080.00 (small entity). The extension of time was granted (see PAIR) and the fee along with the response was accepted and docketed by the United States Patent and Trademark Office without comment or indication that the '849 Application had been abandoned.

During the interim from March 11, 2005 until October 11, 2005, when the Notice of Abandonment was received by Applicants' Attorney, Applicants' attorney at least weekly monitored PAIR. During this entire time no indication was forthcoming regarding the abandonment of the '849 Application. In fact, on or about Thursday, October 6, 2005, PAIR carried an indication that a "Non-Final Office Action" had been issued in the '849 Application, but this action was not available to be viewed as part of the file wrapper. Applicants' Attorney spoke with Mr. Kneeper, the Examiner of record, today (October 12, 2005), and determined that even Mr. Kneeper was unaware that the '849 Application had become abandoned and only discovered this situation inadvertently in checking his case status.

Thus, up until receipt of the Notice of Abandonment on October 11, 2005, Applicants' Attorney had no knowledge of the abandoned status of the '849 Application. Obviously, since

Appl. No. 09/996,849
Petition For Revival Of An Application Abandoned Unintentionally
Dated October 12, 2005

Applicants' Attorney had responded to the outstanding office action and paid five-month "extension of time" fee, Applicants had no intention of abandoning the '849 Application. Moreover, since the '849 Application had been pending examination for almost three years, the '849 Application was published. This publication thus precludes Applicants refilling with a later date and works a substantial hardship on Applicants who had intended, from the filing of the '849 Application to the Notice of Abandonment, to prosecute the '849 Application to issuance and had no knowledge that the '849 Application had been inadvertently abandoned.

Applicants' Attorney, in good faith, believed that the '849 Application was awaiting action on the March 11, 2005 response. Applicants' Attorney is filing this petition with the requisite fee immediately upon learning of the abandoned status of the '849 Application.

WHEREFORE, Applicants' Attorney hereby requests early action in granting this Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally.
